BRAZIL

To the name one associates endless Amazon Jungle, wonderful beaches, Rio de Janeiro, Carnival and Samba. This is all correct but in reality, Brazil is much more: a huge country of superlatives. With a surface of 8.5 million Km², Brazil is almost as big as Europe covering half of the South American continent, it has an estimated population of 209 million inhabitants and its official currency is Real (R$). The climate differs according to zone and altitude, but overall Equatorial and Tropical are the main ones along most of the territory, the highest temperatures occur in the Northeast area and the lowest in the lower lands of Southeast and South regions. Brazil, a country of immense proportions and contrasts, has an enigmatic pull on many people. Since the sixteenth century, when the Portuguese first settle in the country, Brazil has had this mesmerizing effect on foreigners. First there was gold, then rubber followed by coffee and nowadays it is above all the rhythms and the rich culture that appeal to tourists. Brazilians tend to display a lot of happiness, kindness and spontaneity. The biggest country of South America is a mirror of fascinating pictures.

Rio de Janeiro is also called the “Marvelous City”. Located by the Atlantic Ocean, golden beaches adorn its shores backed with lush mountains. Enjoy life like the “cariocas” whose charisma is contagious. Dance to the rhythms of samba and old-school “bossa nova”, sip on a caipirinha, and appreciate the incredibly diverse architecture. Visit iconic landmarks like Corcovado and Sugar Loaf Mountain, sail around Guanabara Bay, or learn about history and art at one of city’s many museums.

Capital of the State of Rio de Janeiro, and also Brazil’s capital from 1763 to 1961, is nestled between the mountains and the sea, its magnificent shoreline includes charming bays and beautiful beaches, dotted with islands up and down the coast. Flying into Rio is a beautiful sight, whether it is at night or during the day. The visitor quickly finds out why Rio is known as the Wonderful City. A center for art and fashion, you can always find the latest styles in Ipanema’s elegant stores and boutiques.

ARGENTINA

The name Argentina comes from the Latin Word “argentum” (silver) and has been used since the first so called “Conquistador” (Conqueror) from Spain came to the “Rio de la Plata” (Silver River). The Country has 44.5 million inhabitants, many Spanish, Italians, Germans and French immigrated to Argentina, being the most European influenced country of the subcontinent. Argentina is a fascinating land of contrasts and of unspoiled nature along its 3.694 km (2.2985 mi.) from North to South and 1.423 Km (885 mi.) from east to west. You can find impressive waterfalls, appealing landscapes, delicious wines, peaceful lakes, breath-taking glaciers, the world’s southernmost city also known as “the end of the world” as well as abundant wildlife. Buenos Aires the capital city, is one of the most elegant and busiest cities of South America.

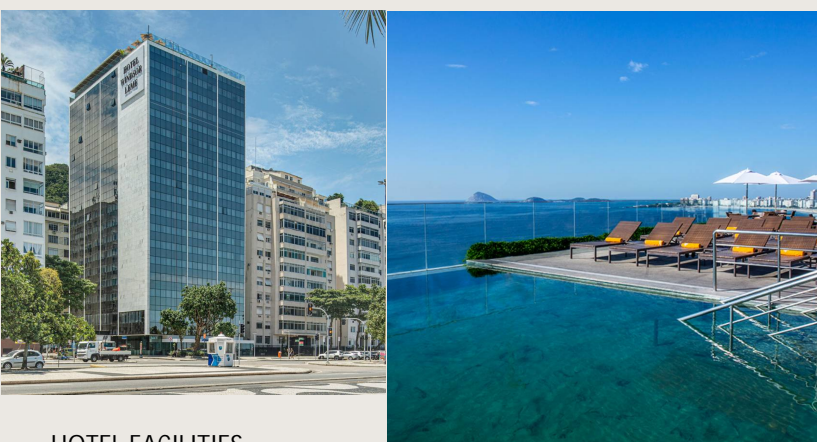

Buenos Aires, located on the coast of the De La Plata River, with more than 13 millions, is one of the biggest cities of South America. Being an important economic and cultural center, it is considered the capital of the Tango (Argentinean Dance). Its architecture shows the combination of different styles, and gives it a beauty, which makes it an irresistible city to visit.
